TOTAL MONEY SUPPLY: 9,500,000
Money supply for Mining rewards: 2,500,000 during next 30+ years.
Emission Curve, Difficulty Target, Block Reward Formula,
This is something that probably needs to be discussed a bit. Basically, out of 9,500,000 total coins to be out there, ONLY 7,000,000 will be available at the ICO, ether for purchase, or for bonus), that leaves 2,500,000 to be EVER Mined. Within the next 20 years. I think Emission Speed Factor 21, and the difficulty target of 120 would be appropriate, what do you think?
